Library news

Library Books & Textbooks - All library books should have already been returned to the RHMS Library. Textbooks should be returned anytime during this coming week, May 20-24.

Chromebook Collection: Students will be returning their school chromebooks AND chargers to the library during this week and next. 7th & 8th graders will be returning their chromebooks with their English classes, and 6th graders will be returning with their teams. Please make sure there are no stickers on the chromebook or charger (including your name sticker), and follow the instructions of your teachers to clean and prepare the chromebook for return. If you have lost your charger, there will be a replacement fee of $25.

8th grade: Friday, May 24

7th grade: Tuesday, May 28

6th grade: Wednesday, May 29

Please make sure all library items get returned to the library in a timely manner. Your library record needs to be clear to participate in SunSplash and other fun events.

Summer Reading: I hope you plan to keep reading lots of great books this summer. Our local public libraries have wonderful summer reading programs & events planned for you. Stop by the RH Library & pick up your free digital El Dorado County library card today. Happy Reading!
