IX. SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT
Superintendent Roth reported that school has officially started and everyone is off and running. Dr. Roth took a moment to recognize the tremendous efforts in the District Office to make that happen. Specifically, Dr. Roth recognized Karen Crofut and Sharon Boardway in our Human Resource Department and all of the work they do to make sure all of our schools are fully staffed to start the school year. He also recognized Karen LaLonde and Wendy Barlow for their tremendous efforts in getting our various programs and systems up and running, including some new programs the District had purchased recently - which only added to their plate. Dr. Roth recognized the time consuming nature of these tasks and how well both have done to make sure all needed to be in place is -- it is greatly appreciated. Dr. Roth also recognized the business department staff, including Director Mike Henkel, Barbara, Dana, Lisa, Lu. The business department has been busy helping the schools get set up with their budgets and purchases. Our new Director Mike Henkel has been busy visiting Principals which is much appreciated by all. Finally Dr. Roth thanked all the DO staff for all their hard work this past summer - it is greatly appreciated.

Brenda Hanson-Smith said that the Board recognizes and appreciates all the hard work from all the District Office Staff.

X. REPORTS AND REQUESTS FROM BOARD MEMBERS
Mr. Pingrey asked the Board if they had any requests to take back to the County Board for its next meeting? No requests were made.

XII. CONSENT AGENDA
All matters listed on the Consent Agenda are considered by the Board to be routine and will be enacted by the Board in one motion. There will be no discussion on these items prior to the time the Board votes on the

XIII. PRESENTATIONS

1. I-Day Update

   Director of Curriculum, Patty Randolph, presented on I-Day outcomes. Ms. Randolph said it was a good day. Ms. Randolph shared that Jared Coon, Behaviorist, gave a presentation on Student Behaviors. Staff reported that it was very beneficiary and they were pleased to have the tools to take back to their classroom to begin immediately. Amy Gargani reported that she did training on IB at Camerado for both schools. Ms. Bowers and Ms. Hansen worked with the middle school staff on collaboration targets which has been ongoing since last fall. Overall, Ms. Randolph reported that it was a very positive and productive day for all. Dr. Roth noted that he is pleased that he has been able to get the results from the state testing earlier which has made it possible to get the information out sooner than later. Getting the data earlier has helped the teachers maximize the use of this information. Dr. Roth thanked Patty, Jared and Amy as well as all staff for a great I-day.
2. IB Update
Amy Gargani, IB Coordinator, reported on I-Day. Ms. Gargani updated the Board on the progress of IB. (See IB presentation posted online)
Dr. Roth thanked Ms. Gargani and noted that it this position and Amy herself have been instrumental in getting the school year off to a good start and supporting the schools with IB.

3. 2019 Smarter Balanced Assessment Results
Superintendent David Roth presented on Smarter Balanced Assessment Results and LCAP progress. Performance in ELA and Mathematics increased including among at-risk subgroups that have been a significant focus of improvement efforts. Presentation is posted online under minutes and agendas.
