PRINCIPAL’S MESSAGE

Spring break is on the horizon—we’re almost there! We are definitely feeling that spring has sprung here on campus. We’ve been thankful for a few cloudy days to help keep the lid on things, but next week is heating up—should make for a fun week before break!

We’ve been having some good conversations as a staff about helping students with their behaviors. We know the past few years have somewhat stunted kids in terms of their emotional intelligence and we’re seeing they need more guidance on where the line of respect is drawn. Not to be like my parents who used to say “these kids today...,” but I do see some of their struggles come from stepping from the virtual world back into the real world, or IRL, as they say. We’ve seen the transition from when they used to just be able to chat over video games—we’d say “You’d never say something like that in person,” and it was true. They would never use that kind of language. Now that so much gaming allows for headphones and conversations, they use that “gaming language” more freely, and it has trickled onto campus. When they are called on it, their automatic response is “What, we’re just joking. We’re friends.” The lines have been blurred for them and they’re having trouble distinguishing between what they should/shouldn’t say. In my dream world, they’re also not talking that way over video games and they’re not hearing it on TikTok, but unfortunately I can’t live in my dream world. I am hoping that with all of us putting a concerted effort into this improved behavior, we’ll all see a difference and we’ll get back to a world of civility. We appreciate your partnership in this effort.

We are wrapping up the writing portion of state testing, but still have math, language arts, and science upon our return from spring break. Please do all you can to schedule appointments outside of school hours from April 27 through May 13.

Planning for promotion is fully underway. You should have received a permission slip for the 8th grade trip to SunSplash. If you missed the email about all the upcoming events, please click this link to see how you can help. The ceremony will be in the big gym at ORHS on Monday, June 6 at 7:45 am. It should run about one hour. If any 8th grade student needs to take the bus to school, the bus will be running both its regular schedule for a 7:30 arrival (elementary schools have a regular school day) AND a later 9:30 arrival.

On June 6, the sixth and seventh graders will have a late start in order for all teachers to attend the ceremony. Buses will be running 2 hours later than usual; if your bus usually arrives at 7:00, you should plan for it to arrive at 9:00 on that day. The school day will start at 9:50 and end at 2:04. Schedule below:

What is poetry?

There are many different types of poems, and all are welcome in our poetry showcase!

Some poems rhyme, and some do not. Some are very short, and some are longer. One important thing about a poem is its ability to communicate a lot of information without using a lot of words, so we ask you to please limit your poem to 25 lines or less, and it must fit on one page of paper. The most important thing to know is that your poem is your own expression. What we would really love to read is a poem that shows how you feel about the thing you choose to write about, and gives us a moment to feel it with you. When the judges read your poem, that is what they will be most hoping to see.

Some of the things to think about as you write are:

- THEME – Does your poem address the theme “Feels Like Home”? What does “home” mean to you? It may be a place, like a building, a town, a state, or a country. It may a person, a feeling, or a whole community you belong to, like your class at school. “Home” can mean many different things, and you can write about anything you choose that “feels like home” to you.
- IMAGERY – Do you choose words that paint a picture for the reader?
- RHYTHM – Do the words work to control how the reader moves through your poem?
- DENSITY – How much information and feeling can you pack into just a few words?
- EVOKE A FEELING – Do you communicate a feeling with your words?

Official Rules

How to enter the Pizza, Poetry, and Prizes Showcase:

1. Write your poem (25 lines or less, must fit on one page). You can hand write it or type it.
2. Be sure you give your poem a title, and sign it “by ....”
3. Have your parent or guardian email your poem as an attachment (jpg or Word Document) to: events@buckeyefoundation.org.
   - Include 1. poet’s name, 2. school, 3. grade, and 4. teacher.
   - Your parent/guardian’s email serves as permission for us to show your poem online.
4. Optional: The following are optional and will not be part of the judging, but are welcome! You may illustrate your poem with drawings (on the same page) if you choose. You are welcome to send a video of yourself reading your poem out loud for us to feature in the poetry gallery along with your written poem.
5. Entries must be received by 11:59 PM, April 30, 2022

Questions? Contact us at events@buckeyefoundation.org. Happy writing!
