As we step into Spring, I’ve had many teachers request a refresher on the differences between tattling vs telling and bucket-dipping vs bullying so my latest classroom guidance lesson was on just that. Here are some highlights.

Tattling:
- Trying to get someone in trouble
- Trying to get attention
- Telling about something that was an accident or something that has nothing to do with you
- Telling about something you can solve on your own
- No one is in danger, sick or hurt

Telling:
- Trying to keep someone out of trouble
- Trying to be helpful
- Telling about something that was done on purpose
- Telling about something you CAN’T solve on your own
- Someone IS in danger, sick or hurt

Bucket dipping = Making fun of someone, saying or doing unkind things.

Bullying = when someone deliberately and repeatedly uses words or actions to hurt you.

Types of bullying include:
- Physical, verbal, social, or Cyber

Strategies to deflect bucket-dippers and bullies:
- Avoid
- Ignore
- Have confident body language
- Stay calm and don’t show emotion
- Practice your comebacks
- Use humor
- Speak up/Use an I-message
- Change the subject
- Stick together/surround yourself with genuine friends
- Tell an adult
- Be an Upstander

- Have You Filled a Bucket Today? by Carol McCloud
- The Recess Queen by Alexis O’Neill & Laura Huliska-Beith

Thank you for your time!
Thanks to those of you who volunteered to help with our first Meet the Masters artist this year, Edward Hopper. We heard from some parents new to our MTM program and we’re so glad you had a blast with your kiddos in class. Don’t forget to take lots of photos and share them with us on our Facebook page: @OakMeadowMTM.

Our next artist is someone that you’ve no doubt heard of – Michelangelo Buonarroti. While many of us may have pronounced his first name like “Michael + Angelo,” the proper pronunciation is actually “MIH-el AN-jo” in its original Italian name.

Born on March 6, 1475 in the Tuscan town of Caprese, Italy, Michelangelo was considered the greatest living artist in his lifetime, and one of the greatest artists of all time. He was an Italian Renaissance sculptor, painter, architect and poet who had a tremendous influence on the development of Western art. Ironically, though Michelangelo is probably best known for his fresco painting of the Sistine Chapel in St. Peter’s Basilica, Vatican City, he considered himself primarily as a sculptor. His other famous works include the magnificent Statue of David, Pietà, Moses and The Last Judgment.

You can learn more at our next MTM Training on Thursday, April 7 at 6:30 p.m. in room E-1. If you’re interested in becoming a parent volunteer for MTM, please email MeetTheMastersOM@gmail.com. No artistic talent is needed to volunteer. This program is entirely run by parents so please help keep art alive for our Oak Meadow students. Hope to see you there!
