Hello Bengals!

It officially feels like fall, which is my favorite time of year! As a former English teacher, I have to bring quotes in whenever I can, and here’s my favorite to welcome fall: “Delicious Autumn! My very soul is wedded to it and if I were a bird I would fly about the earth seeking the successive autumns.” (George Eliot) I hope you find some time to enjoy these delicious days with your family and in good health.

We are in full swing here on campus. We are noticing that kids are definitely struggling with remembering “how to be,” and we thought this graphic might be a good reminder of why that might be so:

Now we know why our 7th graders are acting like 4th graders! We will continue to do our best to work together with parents to help students with some basic expectations, especially that of showing respect. Our school has the reputation it has for a reason and we will work together to help our kids get back on track with academic expectations, social-emotional needs, and behavioral goals.

Thank you for your support in making our student council fundraiser a success. Though we fell short of our $25,000 goal, we did manage to make $10,000 for our school. If you missed it but still want to participate, the proceeds do still come to us, though the prize rewards for students are no longer in play. Here’s the link if you want to do some early holiday shopping:

You may also still make a flat donation via Sign Up Genius by clicking here:

As a reminder, there is no school for students on Monday, October 4, as we have a staff in-service training day.

Any questions or concerns that arise, please always feel comfortable to reach out to me--it’s why I’m here!

Happy Autumn,
Debbie
